MULTI-SPORT ATHLETES

Many athletes who competed in the English Schools' Athletic Association (ESAA) Championships have become very successful in a wide variety of sports including Bobsleigh, Boxing, Cricket, Cycling, Darts, Football, Hockey, Modern Pentathlon, Netball, Powerlifting, Rowing, Rugby League, Rugby Union, Skeleton, Triathlon and Weightlifting.

Details follow of seven of Hertfordshire's ESAA competitors who have gone on to have a successful career in other sports :

BOBSLEIGH - SCOTT RIDER

Scott represented Hertfordshire when finishing second in the 1996 ESAA Senior Discus Throw. He represented England in the shot put at 3 consecutive Commonwealth Games from 2006 to 2014 and also won the AAA Shot Put title in 2014.

In 2000, during his athletics career, Scott joined the Great Britain Bobsleigh team and finished in 11th place in the 2002 Olympic Games 4-man bob.

FOOTBALL – CRAIG MACKAIL-SMITH

Craig represented Hertfordshire when finishing 8th in the 1998 ESAA Junior Pole Vault. He started playing youth football with St. Albans City in 1999.

It was another 8 years before he began his professional Football League career with Peterborough United. Although born in Watford, Craig qualified to play for Scotland through his Edinburgh-born grandmother. In 2011, just before the end of his stint at Peterborough he was given his first cap by Scotland and added another 6 caps by the end of 2012 when he was playing for Brighton & Hove Albion. He has since played for Luton Town and Wycombe Wanderers.

FOOTBALL – DAVID JAMES MBE

David represented Hertfordshire when finishing 14th in the 1986 ESAA Inter High Jump. On leaving school he joined Watford FC as a trainee.

He made his Football League debut with Watford in 1990 and gained his first England U21 cap while with the club. In 1992 he joined Liverpool but it was another 5 years before his 53-cap England career started. David's England career lasted 13 years during which time he played in the Premier League for Liverpool, Aston Villa, Manchester City and Portsmouth. His 572 Premier League appearances is the 4th highest number in that league.

HOCKEY – JULIA ROBERTSON

Julia represented Hertfordshire when finishing third in the 1984 ESAA Junior Long Jump and 5th in the 1988 ESAA Senior Heptathlon. She was already playing junior hockey at this time.

In 1991 Julia was playing for Ealing and was vice-captain of the England Under-21 hockey team. She won a silver medal at the 1991 European Indoor Under-21 Championships. She was also an England International.

He made his Saracens debut at 19 years of age. His England debut came in 2016 and, as of July 2022, he has amassed 58 caps.

Maro has also played 6 times for the British and Irish Lions.
